Paul Castañon is on vacation. This week's column was written by Riviera President Friday Aguilera.

Our columnist Paul "Bubbles" Castañon is in Old Mexico taking advanage of the warm sun, beautiful sceanery and spectacular events; so I'll write this column until he gets back. Paul is at one of his headquaters in Guadalajara and taking trips to the beautiful city of Lagos de Chapala.

He saw the city of Guadalajara pay homage to Jose Becerra. This event took place in a football stadium in which the following stars were present; Miguel Aceves Mejia, Amalia Mendoza, La Sultana del Norte Roberto Cañedo, El Mariachi (America), El Chirrion and the Mariachi Los Rancheros de Jalisco.

His photographers Abrahan "Pee Wee" Salinas and Librado Garza were at work taking pictures.

By the way!!!!! Paul is having a heck of a time keeping himself and his photographers sober. Mr. Castañon wrote, "with the drinks and Mariachi as cheap as they are I wonder how anybody keeps sober, hic hic hic hic!!!!!"

SQUAW VALLEY CALIFORNIA

SCENE OF THE 1960 WINTER OLYMPIC GAMES

by Dave E. Sierra

CAROL HEISS, DAVE JENKINS, & HOCKEY TEAM WIN GOLD MEDALS FOR UNITED STATES.

The VIII Olympic WINTER GAMES are history. Though Russian athletes won most of the gold medals at Squaw Valley, California, the highlights from an American viewpoint are surely the Men's Figure Skating title won by little Dave Jenkins, the 23 year old medical student from Colorado Springs, Colorado; the Women's Figure Skating crown which went to vivacious New York University coed Carol Heiss; and the Ice Hockey championship won by an American team coached by Jack Riley of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

The most remarkable triumph of all has to be the ice hockey win over the favored Russians which opened the door to America's first-ever hockey crown.

On Thursday, Feb. 25th the Yanks scored one of the biggest upsets of this or any other Olympic year when they edged a heavily favored Canadian team 2-1 in the quarter-final round.

On Saturday, the 27th, before a packed Blyth Arena crowd of 9000 screaming fans and millions more watching on a national television hookup, the Yanks stunned the ice hockey world with a 3-2 win over a U.S.S.R. team which had finished first at Cortina, Italy four years ago. This was Uncle Sam's first-ever win over a Russian ice hockey team.

On Sunday, Feb. 28th the Americans scored their biggest win with a final-round 9-4 whipping of Czechoslovakia which nailed down the Olympic gold medal for the United States.

CARYL CHESSMAN Life or Death?

by Dave E. Sierra

CARYL CHESSMAN, whom a Los Angeles jury convicted of being the notorious "Red Light Bandit" that terrorized the Mulholland Drive lovers lane area high up in the Hollywood Hills northeast of Los Angeles in the winter of 1948, has won a 60 day reprieve from the Gas Chamber at San Quentin. He now has 60 more days to prove his innocence, if he is not guilty.

A jury of ELEVEN WOMEN and one man convicted Chessman of seventeen counts of felony, including kidnaping, attempted rape, sex perversion, robbery, and grand theft.

A question: Is a jury of ELEVEN WOMEN and one man a 'jury of his peers?'

THE CRIMES IN DETAIL

To be more explicit Caryl Chessman is "up" for the following crimes:

Kidnaping--four counts. Punishable by DEATH on two counts and Life without parole on the other two.

First Degree Robbery--eight counts. Five years to life, to be served consecutively.

Sex Perversion--two counts. Up to fifteen years.

Attempted Robbery--one count. Up to 20 years.

Grand Theft--one count. Up to 10 years.

Attempted Rape--one count. Up to 25 years.

KIDNAPING and ROBBERY WITH INTENT TO DO BODILY HARM brings the DEATH PENALTY under California's LITTLE LINDBERGH LAW.

Chessman had been sentenced to die in the little green room at San Quentin Prison for his actions of the night of January 22nd, 1948. That evening, the State of California alleges, he found a 17 year old girl Mary Alice Meza and her boy friend parked in his car in lovers lane. Chessman approached their car, flashed a red light in their faces, making them believe he was a policeman, and ordered Miss Meza to get out of the vehicle. With a gun in his hand, he ordered her to perform an act of sexual perversion. Fearing death, she complied with his request.

Another woman, Mrs. Regina Johnson, was also subjected to a similar ordeal that same night.

At the time of his first trial Chessman contended that the judge presiding at his inquest was prejudiced against him and wanted to send him up for good to get him out of his judicial hair.

The main point of Chessman's defense, insofar as we personally have been able to determine, has been that Chessman and his attorneys George T. Davis and Miss Rosalie Asher are not satisfied with the transcript of the court reporter's notes of the original trial.

The court reporter passed away unexpectedly before he had a chance to transcribe his notes of the trial. Another reporter transcribed the notes. This is the part of the proceeding where Chessman and his counsel insist that he was denied Due Process of Law.

Those of you versed in shorthand know, and have been taught, that ONLY YOU can transcribe your own shorthand notes accurately. This is the point that Mr. Chessman cannot bring himself to understand, how the Los Angeles courts allowed another reporter to transcribe a dead man's notes. He argues that to be tried FAIRLY he should have been granted another trial, with an UNPREJUDICED judge on the bench.

"A travesty of the Law," Chessman frowned.

Those of you who have read his three books, CELL 2455 DEATH ROW, THE FACE OF JUSTICE, & TRIAL BY ORDEAL understand the basic driving force behind the brilliant Los Angeleno who is spending his twelfth year in the grim confines of Death Row.

There are many points which he brings up in his works which should be of interest to anyone interested in the Chessman case and particularly to those interested in criminal law.

He points out that the State Attorney General is eager to have him executed because he is an elected official and wants to bury as many criminals as possible, making the Attorney General seem like a ruthless, efficient prosecuter and thus a prime candidate for re-election.

CARYL CHESSMAN is possessed of an I.Q. of 178 which makes him a Genius. He has used his intelligence to advantage in his 12 years on the row. His constant fight to better the laws of his native state has resulted in at least one law being changed, to Chessman's advantage, of course!!!

He steadfastly maintains that he is NOT the Red Light Bandit and has agreed to divulge the man's identity ONLY AFTER HIS DEATH.

That sounds good. Of course he may be bluffing.

ENTIRE FREE WORLD PROTESTS EXECUTION

News of Chessman's fight against the California Judicial System has caused an uproar all over the Free World. Outspoken critics of capital punishment have voiced their opinions of the California courts and their shortcomings.

LeMonde, a Paris newspaper said, "If he was guilty why add to the death penalty the agony of 12 years behind bars?"

The Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, said "It is no longer a judicial question, but only a humane question."

In Switzerland, 9000 university students signed a petition in Geneva urging Governor Edmund G. Brown of California to grant a reprieve.

Expressen, a Stockholm, Sweden newspaper collected 90,000 signatures asking Brown to grant clemency.

In Oslo, Norway the newpaper Dagebladet got 50,000 signatures on a clemency petition.

The Manchester Guardian, one of Great Britain's most respected newspapers said, "There is something radically wrong with a judicial system that can allow delays such as the 12 year ordeal which Chessman has endured."

The Laborite Daily Herald added, "If he is executed, it will be a day when it will be rather UNPLE-ASANT to be an AMERICAN."

CHESSMAN

The Presse in Paris offered, "The condemned man seems lost-- Governor Brown, a Catholic opposed to the death penalty, hesitates to displease his voters."

Mexican congresswoman Macrina Rabadan said, "It would be murder," and telegraphed President Eisenhower that Latin American women would wear mourning bands during his coming tour of South America if Chessman were put to death.

Political pressure from Washington, more than any other thing probably influenced "Pat" Brown more than any other factor when he granted a temporary stay of execution to the condemned man.

We think that for the American judicial system to regain all prestige lost throughout the world as a result of the Chessman case, a new trial, from start to finish, is our only recourse.

We do not favor a judicial system influenced by the whims of foreigners. Neither do we comprehend how the courts can convict a man of crimes punishable by Death and then procrastinate to mete the sentence which they have deemed just.

In The United States of America, one is innocent until proven guilty. If Chessman is innocent, he should be released. If he is guilty, the blade of justice should have struck swiftly.

We personally feel that the courts which convicted CARYL CHESSMAN have their doubts about the "Red Light Bandit." TIME WILL TELL.

CITA en SAMARRA

Hace algunos dias decidi levantarme antes de la salida del sol y andar hacia el Parque Williams situado en la calle Diesisiete entre Williams y Margaret.

Llegue a la Trece y Margaret. El sol aun no asomaba. Ambas calles estaban completamente desiertas. En todo su extension no se divisaba ni gato, ni perro, ni vehiculo alguno.

Me detuve a descansar. De repente note las luces de un automovil venir por la calle Margaret hacia el Este. Mire a la calle 13 y note que venia otro automovil a carrera desenfrenada. Se me vino a la mente que los tripulantes de ambos vehiculos venian de mucha prisa a encontrarse con la muerte.

En menos de lo que demora un gallo en saludar el nuevo dia ya los automoviles estaban muy cerca de la esquina. Iba yo a ser testigo de una de las tantas tragedias que a diario ocurren en nuestros caminos debido a las velocidades fantasticas con que se manejan los carruajes sin caballos. Era mi obligacion evitar tal evento.

Sali a la calle y levante ambos brazos haciendo gestos para que se detuvieran. Uno de los automoviles freno. El otro no hizo caso y paso como rafaga. Sin embargo, la detencion de uno de los vehiculos fue suficiente para evitar la catastrofe.

Segui mi camino cavilando. No se porque se me vino a la mente una historia que lei hace mucho tiempo, intitulada CITA EN SAMARRA.

Un rico comerciante Persa habia ido a visitar a una adivina quien tenia mucha fama de ser muy acertada en sus predicciones. Entre otras cosas la adivina le dijo que en algunos dias mas nuestro opulento comerciante seria visitado por la muerte.

Asustado el mercador, resolvio ir a esconderse en el subterraneo de una casa de campo que tenia en una aldea muy aislada llamada Samarra. Estaba seguro de que a la muerte le seria imposible encontrarlo en sitio tan remoto.

A los tres dias de ir de viaje, resolvio detenerse a descansar y a cenar en una humilde posada que estaba escondida detras de un cerro, lejos del camino donde muy pocos viajeros llegaban.

Y estaba terminando su solitaria cena cuando se le vino a sentar al lado un individuo muy alto y flaco de ojos hundidisimos y de aspecto cadaverico.

Con voz cavernosa el nuevo viajero dijo "Me puedo sentar a su lado, señor?"

Contento de tener alguien con quien conversar, nuestro comerciante asintio de muy buenas ganas. Al poco rato estaban en animada conversacion.

"Y a donde se dirige, su Merced?" pregunto nuestro comerciante.

El hombre de mirar profundo saco una libreta donde habia escrito muchos nombres con direcciones. Con un dedo huesudo y famelico siguio la linea de nombres y finalmente dijo:

"Tengo una cita en Samarra."

"Oh, que contento estoy," dijo nuestro mercador. "Me agrada mucho su conversaccion. Yo tambien voy para Samarra. Podemos ir juntos."

"Lo siento," dijo la voz cavernosa. "Pero tengo varias citas antes de llegar a Samarra."

Se puso de pies en ademan de despedirse.

"Yo tambien lo siento," dijo el rico comerciante. "En realidad me hubiera agradado mucho ir charlando con Vd. Mi coche esta afuera, esperandome. De todas maneras espero que quedemos amigos y tengamos oportunidad de encontrarnos nuevamente.

"Nos encontraremos," dijo el hombre alto.

El comerciante estiro la mano. "Mi nombre es Rabendronoh Tigorash. Como es el suyo?"

"Mi nombre es muy corto," dijo el señor alto. "Desde tiempos inmemoriales se me ha conocido con el nombre de la Muerte."

CLUB San Felipe

Joe Gonzales

The United Food Drive Talent Show was very successful thanks to all of you people who so generously contributed to our worthy cause.

I want to specially thank all participants of the Talent Show who so willingly gave their time and effort in order to make this such a successful event.

SAN FELIPE-SAN JOAQUIN TARDEADA A HIT!

La Tardeada brought to you by Club San Joaquin and Club San Felipe was also a great success.

Most people who had never been to Leon's Gardens were very pleased, and had nothing but praising remarks for the orderly manner in which everything was conducted.

BOBBY ZAMORA and his orchestra went over big with all who attended because of the unique way in which it belts out piece after piece. Man! that music sure gets into you.

Some of the people who were there having a great time are: Lupe Reyes, Norma Reyes, Irene Sandoval, Polly and Ema, Virginia, Trudie, Pete Rojas, Sugar Zamora, Al Velasquez, Amparo and Lolly Sanchez, and direct from the Marine Corps we had Ruben Flores, Richie Perez, and Lupe Felan.

CANDY & CUELLAR, CHICKEN THIEFS!!!!!

Candy Veliz and Art Cuellar, our club President and Vice President were caught stealing chickens, and if they had been timed their run from the scene of the crime to Joe's Candy Bar would have broken all records.

The following day Joe's Candy Bar had a very successful fried chicken sale. The chickens were stolen around the vicinity of Hawthorne Way, I wasn't there, I didn't see it, I was told!!!!!!!!

UNUSUAL PARTY AT TROPICANA VILLAGE

February 13, 1960 a party was thrown at a certain house at Tropicana Village. This however was a very unusual party, for a dumb looking character kept passing a silly looking hat around, ordering people to put money in it to buy booze!!!!!!!!

My companions and I who were NOT drinking refused to put money in the hat, thus sending the guy into a frenzy to the point where he threatened to have us thrown out of the house. This goes to show you that some people have no sense whatsoever and will stoop at nothing to have their own way. As party guests, we were not aware that we had to buy our own booze and even if we were not drinking we still had to pitch in so the rest of the "guests" and host could get loaded.

Next time you guys throw a party, you would do well to SELL TICKETS for it, CHARGING ADMISSION instead of inviting people to go buy you booze.

GLOSSY-EYED BACHELORS?

At the rate they are going, The Bachelors Club will have to change its name to the Married Men's Club, for some of it's members have that glossy-eyed look on their faces. On top of that list is Rudy Belloumini who is seriously considering taking the vows of matrimony with Rachel Andres.

One member who is sure to remain a bachelor is, "The Kid," Hank Paramo.

UNDEFEATED KNIGHTS LEAD U.C.C.

Going into the final game of the first half we find the Knights leading the U.C.C. League with a 3-0 record. This could very well be the first team ever to go undefeated in the league's history.

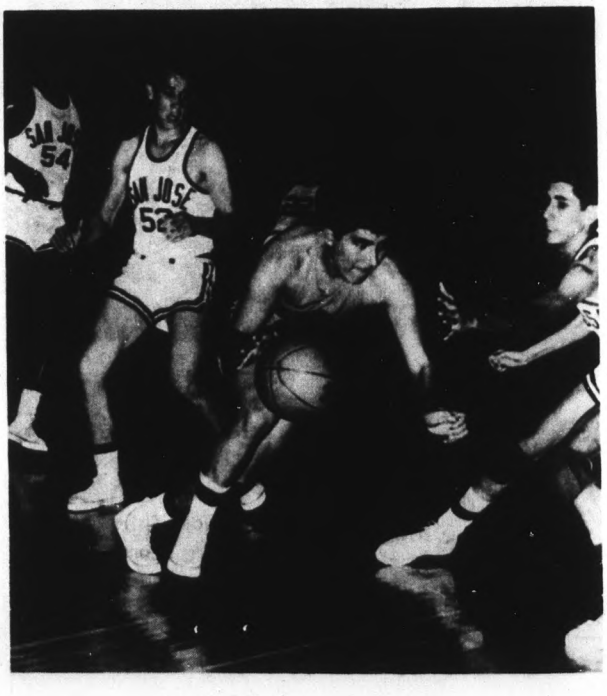

But when you have two other teams fighting for 1st place like Club San Joaquin and Casa Manana, you can never tell what is going to happen.

San Joaquin and Casa Manana are tied for second place and if Casa Manana upsets the Knights the league will go into a three way tie.

I hate to bring the report of the game between Casa Manana and San Felipe, but when a team like that plays together and has team work, you just have to give them credit, for they could very well be the team to beat in the 2nd half. Highest pointer for that game was none other than Ex-Camden High All SCVAL center Greg Rocha of Casa Manana who scored 32 points.

Also lots of credit goes to Casa Manana's B team who are champions of the B league. They tell me that Sugar Zamora is the big star for the champions, is that right PRIMO?

In the photo is AL AGUIRRE of Club San Felipe. He is an Ex-Lincoln High star and was named to the All Tournament teams at Gridley and Lick and made the San Jose All City 2nd Team.

GEOGRAFIA en BREVE

La lluvia constante en los ultimos dias me brinda la ocasion de dedicar unos momentos a la obra que en gran parte corresponde a MADRE NATURALEZA ya que el contenido de los rios, de los lagos y en general de todo lo que recibe el benefactor valor que da impulso a la produccion en sus variados aspectos corresponde en gran parte a las lluvias que nos han visitado por algunos dias, que aunque no son amenazadoras, como en ciertas regiones en que su abundancia es semenjante al DILUVIO actual, su aparicion es bien recibida en los secotres en que la sed de agua de lluvia se hacia prolongada, y sus beneficios se dejaran sentir proximamente muchas millas a la redonda y el beneplacito sera general ya que la abundancia como todo lo que es apreciado por sus meritos, de abastecimiento y prosperidad, sera reconocida.

Las lluvias en parte aceleraran el progreso economico y la industria, la agricultura, las construcciones todo ello haran un alto en determinada temporada, pero una vez que se encaminan a lograr una fuctifera etapa de produccion y progreso su rendimiento caminara a pasos agigantados, y lo que ayer fue pausa se transformara hoy en rendimiento.

Rios, presas, arroyos flotando en la benefactora lluvia que las nubes han depositado en ellos seran como la base para un mejor desarroyo economico.

Tras un dia nublado sale el sol y tras de esperar que brille el sol de la abundancia y la prosperidad nos concretamos a ver las nubes que ocultan al astro que enseguida brillara para nosotros.

WELCOME TO CLUB ELITE

The newly organized CLUB ELITE gets things underway socially on the evening of March 4th when they join the San Jose Bachelors Club in a party at Manor House, 985 The Alameda St., San Jose.

Webster's Dictionary defines Elite; n. the choicest part of, as of society, a profession, etc. etc. etc.

Misses Vickie Gutierrez, Trudy Jiminez, Esther Baca, Clara Alonzo, Diane Barrera, Alice Silva, Rachel Andres, and Rosemary Ramirez, are some of the girls already in the club.

The ELITE Women are a very welcome addition to the San Jose social set in view of the fact that the old standbys Club Venus and zanzaree have vanished from the scene.

ODDYSEY TO THE GERMS

Below, just to demonstrate that not only North Beach poets are capable of prose that defies conformity, is our contribution to the cause. The "poem" should in no way be interpreted as capturing our opinions, ideas, or thoughts; it being merely a candid reflection of specific thoughts which came to mind when the urge to compose presented itself.

Breathlessly escaping azure heights the wings of rapture aimlessly flutter, the morrow contemplates its fate and stoic tendencies exclaim;
Arise, discoursing and not spent the inorganic measures flight, albeit sanctific shoreward movements scan, and shadows creep across the earth, the Dawn helloes the virgin day and old sol bathes the germs at play.

OVERHEARD..... On The S.F.-S'Jose Bus.

Man: "Did you get any this weekend?"
Attractive Woman: "I ALWAYS get some!"
Man: "Was it a big one?"
Woman: "You betchum!"
Man: "Where at?"
Woman: "Santa Cruz!"
Man: "Is it as good as it used to be?"
Woman: "Oh yeah! Can't beat that No. California fishing!!!!!!!!"

AND..... that's our Fish Story for this week.

ATTENTION! Members of Royal Order of Toro.

Ray Garcia, popular bistro owner who used to welcome his friends at EL TORO at 13th & Taylor, will open his new bar at 853 Lincoln Avenue about the time that you're reading this bit.

We went in to look at the new place and one thing is for sure: The bar is a lot looooooooonger than before!

The new name is DE ANTES.
(Amigos, this means 'from before' in Spinach!)

UNITED FOOD DRIVE TALENT SHOW

The 14th annual United Food Drive Talent Show went off as scheduled at the Liberty Theater on Feb. 27th.

For the second consecutive year the show featured DAVE GARY & THE LATINEERS, representing Club San Joaquin. They did their usual commendable job and drew the applause of young and old alike.

Other entertainers were Reyes Balderas, El Rey De La Cancion Ranchera; chubby youngster Joe Chaves of Mt. View who garnered a long round of applause for his version of "Ando Volando Bajo" and "Padre" and was later selected to pick out the winning raffle tickets; and Lila Budementez and Tony Lopez, two girls singing ranchera favorites "La Traidora" and "La Prieta Linda" which were well liked by the crowd.

As for the "Commercials", we found them a bit too obvious and out of place in a presentation of this nature.

MUSIC MAN OF THE MONTH

Got another of those rare opportunities to listen to one of San Jose's best pianists DAVE GARY at a recent get-together at the Manor House.

Big Dave tickled hell out of the eighty-eight and had the quaint old mansion almost rocking on its foundation. The East San Antonio Street cat rendered "Stagger Lee" to the delight of the assembled who cheered wildly and stomped their feet, "More! More!"

And more he gave them. The audience was so enthralled at hearing one of the city's best up-and-coming young musical artists that they took up a collection and thanked Dave and his boys for a great performance by decorating their palms with a little of The Green.

One question: When does someone discover that THE LATINEERS have "IT" and give them the break they deserve???????????

ODDS N' ENDZ:

Are Joe Carbajal and Goyo Gloria the Heavyweight & Lightweight Baby-making Champions of S'Jose?.....

Coach Bob Titchenal of S.J. State lost quarterback Ray Podesto (to keep from overworking a cliche we will not mention his hometown. It's in Stanislaus County.) through scholastic ineligibility. NOW..... just stand back and wait for the rush of J.C. signal-callers to the Spartan campus. As of now the QB job is in the hands of Chon Gallegos (Lick High & SJCC) and Gene Tagliaferri (Capuchino High & College of San Mateo.)

Incidentally, Chon and Miss Bobbie Alvarez have announced wedding plans for June 25th in St. John Vianney Catholic Church.....

Herb Caen, S.F. Chronicle columnist, has suggested that they name the Oakland entry in the American Football League... The Ferries. How about the Oakland Fairies???????..... No? Okay.....

The wine ship ANGELO PETRI which was on the rocks just outside the G'Gate was saved after all.

Lovers of The Juice, rejoice!!!!!!!!!!!!!
